Lowering skies did not prevent a large crowd of Barre and Montpelier people from starting for the band concert that was to have been given at Benjamin falls yesterday under the auspices of the Barre & Montpelier Traction & Power Co. When the first threatening installment of a shower that didn't really materialize began to arrive, the bandmen evacuated the park and started for this city. It is announced that the Barre band will probably furnish music for the postponed concert next Sunday afternoon.

Much of the equipment that is to go to complete the new City hospital building on Washington street has been installed and within the present week the work of laying the linoleum and installing the electrical fixtures will have been completed. It has been decided to hold the dedication exercises sometime next week, probably on Tuesday, and to that end the finishing touches to the structure are being put on with dispatch. Next Sunday the hospital doors will be thrown open and the public will be allowed to inspect the institution from the first floor to the roof ward. The building will also be opened for inspection on the following day as well as during the dedication exercises.

Three little Elm street children caused their parents no end of anxiety Sunday afternoon when they started out walking in the late afternoon and did not return home until the hour when young people are supposed to be in the land of Nod. Little Virginia and Doris Newton, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie M. Newton, and Gladys Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Bond, started out for the concert at Benjamin falls around 4 o'clock. As the bandmen had failed to connect with their instruments on account of the threatened rain, the children remained at Benjamin falls until near dusk. As they started to take up the trail for home, it appears that the leader of the trio got the wrong cue and all three were presently swinging along the main road to the capital. It was only when they reached the very threshold of the neighboring city that someone advised them of their mistake. Meanwhile at home the band was on, although it was not until nearly 10 o'clock that three very weary children were picked up on the Montpelier road and brought to Barre.

Will These Prices Interest?

We are putting every effort into getting our stock into shape for our fall business. This means that all odd stock or lots that have become broken or discontinued we are putting prices on to clean them up in the next few weeks. This means a good saving in price to you and at the same time you get a garment that has its full value as to style and quality. In many things we have been able to pick up odd lots at much under the regular price; these go into this sale at clean up prices. You can get many garments in this sale at less than you would pay for the cloth that is in them alone.

Palm Beach and Linen Suits

In this clean-up sale are what we have left in Palm Beach and Linen Suits at prices that are less in many cases than you would pay for the skirts alone.

At $1.98 is a Natural Linen Suit in a good style, 28-inch coat, with a good full skirt. Was $6.50.

At $3.98 are some Raja Linen Suits in Blue, Brown, and White; are a good styled coat with a good medium plaited skirt; were $10.00; now to close at $3.98.

At $3.98 are plain Natural Linen Suits in a good value that sold at $10.00. Now to close at $3.98.

At $5.00 are a few Palm Beach Suits in the natural color, and the Blue and Black with white hair-line. Were $8.50.

At $7.50 is one Palm Beach Suit in the season's best quality, that sold at $12.50. To close at $7.50.

Ladies' Dust Coats

We are closing what we have left in Dust Coats at prices that will close them quickly.

At 98c each are a few Linen Colored Coats that sold at $1.50, $1.75, and $2.00.

At $1.49 are a few Linen Dust Coats in good fine style. Were $3.98.

At $1.98 are a few odd Linen Dust Coats in qualities up to $4.50.

If your sizes are here, call as soon as you see this ad.

Hoagknit Sweaters

This is the vacation season. Hoagknit Sweaters should be in every pack. No garment so necessary for outing use as a heavy Sweater—one that will stand all sorts of abuse. Use it for a coat, use it as a bed, run it through the mud, wash it, and you have the original, as good as new.

Hoagknit Sweaters are made without seams, all hand finished, all parts knit together (not stitched together). They keep their shape and wear for years.

All kinds of wool have advanced. We are now selling Hoagknit Sweaters at $5.98 that are selling in most cities at from $6.50 to $7.00. We know that these Sweaters are some of the best made. We will stand back of these Sweaters as to color and wear.

Hoagknit Sweaters for children at from 98c to $2.50; for boys and misses from $1.75 to $4.75; all sizes. They come in Dark Red, Brown, Navy, Green, Tan, Black, and White.

We are taking orders for Ladies' Silk Sweaters that are just now a real fad. Special price, $5.98.

We are cleaning up our summer dress stock and the prices we are making on them will interest all. See the muslin and voile dress values at $2.00. In the better grades, such as fine voiles, dimities and challies, in qualities from $4.50 to $9.00 we are closing at much under the regular price. There are also a few linen dresses in this lot that we are closing out at about one-third off from the regular price. See our special white skirt values.

MONTPELIER

Krinovitz-Yett Wedding Attended by Number of People.

In the presence of over two hundred guests from this city, Barre, Burlington, Plattsburg, N. Y., and New York City, Miss Eva Alice Yett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac S. Yett, of 12 Fuller street, this city, and Walter Krinovitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Krinovitz of Plattsburg, N. Y., were united in marriage at six o'clock last evening in Odd Fellows hall. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Popkin of Burlington.

The bride was given away by her father and mother and was attended by her sister, Miss Gussie Yett and Miss Rose Yett, as maids of honor and Misses Rose Levin of Barre, Rose Levin of Burlington, Eva G. Yett of Montpelier, Mary Fine of Burlington and Flora Samolens of Burlington, as bridesmaids. The ushers were Harry Levin of Barre, Samuel Levin of New York City, Isadore Krinovitz of Plattsburg, Michael Frank, Jack Wool and Benjamin Yett of Burlington. The bride couple were also attended by Mr. and Mrs. Myer S. Levin of Barre and Mr. and Mrs. Medvsky of Burlington.

The bride was prettily attired in white crepe de chine and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses, and her bridesmaids wore taffeta silk, yellow, blue and green being the colors. The maids of honor wore blue silk. Mrs. Yett wore white satin.

Carroll's orchestra of Barre played the wedding march and rendered selections during the elaborate dinner which was served to the guests following the ceremony. A color scheme of yellow and green was followed in decorations, ferns and daisies being used profusely in trimming the hall. A special train from Burlington brought nearly two hundred friends and relatives from the Queen City, Plattsburg and Waterbury.

The bride is a popular young lady who has a host of friends in this city and Barre. She was graduated from Montpelier high school in the class of 1912 and has been employed for some time by Davis and Somers of this city as bookkeeper. Mr. Krinovitz is the proprietor of a clothing store in Waterbury and during his residence in that town has gained a wide circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Krinovitz were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, including presents of cut glass, linen and china. They left last evening on an auto trip.

On the curve at the top of Clay hill, so-called, on upper Main street, a Flying Merkel motorcycle owned and operated by Harold Barnes of 138 Elm street, this city, and a Pierce-Arrow touring car owned and driven by Redfield Phillips of State street, crashed into each other. The collision happened around noon yesterday, and no one was injured to any extent. The motorcycle was mounting the top of the ascent and the automobile coming down came abruptly around the curve. The road is rather narrow and it appears that neither party was to blame, the collision being inevitable. The front forks of the motorcycle were broken and the mud-guard smashed, while the bumper on the touring car saved it from even small damage. Barnes was thrown off and one side was slightly injured, although not enough to confine him to the house. He is employed at the Harris garage.
